DATE: Sunday, 17th May, 2026

WALK START PLACE – Strathearn Community Campus NN 867 209 You must be prepared to make your own way to the walk start place, usually requiring a car. On completion of the walk, we anticipate getting back to the cars at approx – 4:00 pm.

Meeting at Strathearn Community Campus, we'll explore the adjacent Archaeology Trail (fairly level and paved), before driving out by minibus to Fowlis Wester to look at some amazing sculpted stone crosses (mostly level, but there are 5 steps up to the church, with a hand-rail), then driving to nearby Trinity Gask for a walk along a section of the Gask Ridge (reasonably level, metalled track) to look at Kirkhill Roman Signal Tower (slight slope from the metalled Roman Road into the Tower area), and finally returning to the Campus.

OTHER IMPORTANT INFORMATION:

- The organisers of the Crieff and Strathearn Drovers' Tryst recognise that hill walking is an activity with the danger of personal injury. Participants in Drovers' Tryst walks should be aware of, and accept this risk, and take responsibility for their own actions. It is recommended that individuals provide their own accident insurance cover.
- The walks are led by experienced leaders on a voluntary basis. Walks may be cancelled due to weather conditions or circumstances beyond the organisers' control, and alternative walks will be offered wherever possible.
- Children are welcome on Easy and Medium walks but must be accompanied by a responsible adult and be capable of completing the walk. Minimum age for Medium walks is twelve and minimum age for Hard and Extra Hard walks is sixteen.
- The Tryst reserves the right not to accept participants on a walk if they are not appropriately dressed/kitted out for the level of walk they have signed up for.
- Extra hard walks are not suitable for inexperienced hillwalkers and hard walks do require a reasonable level of walking fitness.
- Dogs are not allowed on Tryst walks, except for guide-dogs.
- The walk fees now include all costs associated with travelling to the start point and for returning back to Crieff, whether by minibus or private car.
