A King's lost sword, a clan battlefield and ancient forest await us on this fascinating journey that starts at Dalrigh, the King's field near Tyndrum -itself at the convergence of old drovers' routes. Enjoy the insights of Gareth Kett, one of the Loch Lomond Rangers, as we head out on the trail crossing the glittering Cononish to the Coille Coire Chuilc forest- Scotland's most southerly ecologically functioning Caledonian forest fragment. A great opportunity to observe the flora and fauna in and around this Site of Special Scientific Interest. Before finally returning to Dalrigh.

OTHER IMPORTANT INFORMATION:

- The organisers of the Crieff and Strathearn Drovers' Tryst recognise that hill walking is an activity with the danger of personal injury. Participants in Drovers' Tryst walks should be aware of, and accept this risk, and take responsibility for their own actions. It is recommended that individuals provide their own accident insurance cover.
- The walks are led by experienced leaders on a voluntary basis. Walks may be cancelled due to weather conditions or circumstances beyond the organisers' control, and alternative walks will be offered wherever possible.
- Children are welcome on Easy and Medium walks but must be accompanied by a responsible adult and be capable of completing the walk. Minimum age for Medium walks is twelve and minimum age for Hard and Extra Hard walks is sixteen.
- The Tryst reserves the right not to accept participants on a walk if they are not appropriately dressed/kitted out for the level of walk they have signed up for.
- Extra hard walks are not suitable for inexperienced hillwalkers and hard walks do require a reasonable level of walking fitness.
- Dogs are not allowed on Tryst walks, except for guide-dogs.
- The walk fees now include all costs associated with travelling to the start point and for returning back to Crieff, whether by minibus or private car.
